UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

In Re

DEMAS WAI YAN,
Debtor

Case No. 16-cv-00305-RS

ORDER DENYING IN PART AND GRANTING IN PART REQUEST FOR EXTENSION

TONY FU AND BRYANT FU,
Appellants,
v.
JANINA M. HOSKINS, Trustee,
Appellee

1 Tony Fu and Bryant Fu, appearing in pro se, filed this appeal on January 19, 2016,
2 challenging an order of the Bankruptcy Court denying them leave to bring suit against the
3 Bankruptcy Trustee for matters involving her handling of the underlying bankruptcy proceeding.
4 Appellants previously obtained an extension of 90 days to file their opening brief, to which the 5 Trustee did not object. Representing that they have again obtained the Trustee's consent,
6 appellants now seek a further extension of 120 days, for reasons they do not explain.

7 The parties are familiar with the extensive history of multiple appeals brought by various
8 persons, both in this court and at the Ninth Circuit court of appeals, all growing out of this long-
9 running bankruptcy proceeding. None of the appeals to date have proven meritorious; most 10 brushed up against, or crossed well over, the line of frivolousness. At this juncture, there is 11 nothing that suggests the present appeal is likely to be substantially more well-founded. Under all
12 the circumstances, further delay of the length requested is not warranted. Appellants shall file
13 their opening brief no later than June 30, 2016. Failure to do so will result in dismissal of the 14 appeal, without further notice.
